

“With the GHP Horwath compliance approach, we involve the right stakeholders in the project at the right time. This ensures that we can deliver an efficient solution that meets the needs of both management and external auditors.”

Nadine T. Pietrowski, CPA

Senior Principal

Nadine Pietrowski, a senior principal in the Assurance Services Group at GHP Horwath, has more than 15 years of audit and attestation experience. She is a Certified Public Accountant registered in Colorado, New York, and California. Nadine has extensive experience providing financial statement audits, reviews, compilations, internal audit, and due diligence assistance. With her significant experience in providing audit and attestation services, she has worked with a wide range of clients. She has extensive expertise in the financial services sector, particularly broker dealers, as well as real estate developers, not-for-profit entities, service providers, employee benefit plans, and manufacturing and distribution companies. She is well versed in the latest rules, regulations, and reporting requirements of the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD), the standards for financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; the Single Audit Act Amendments of 1996 and the provisions of OMB Circular A-133, the regulations and reporting requirements of the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

She is also the private company practice leader in the assurance services group, and the designated assurance principal to have firm-wide responsibility for the quality of the firm’s ERISA employee benefit plan audit practice.

She joined GHP Horwath in 1994. Before that, she was a senior auditor in the auditing and accounting department at KPMG. She holds a B.S in Accounting, Suma Cum Laude, from St. Francis College in New York.
